SESSION SUMMARY

Wetfalls was established as a misty coastal town, with The Soggy Seaweed tavern crowded with drunken sailors. Sir returned from a seaside run, drenched in sweat, and engaged in banter with The Sentient Helm, his transformed squire. Nick, the bartender, served Lee, who was drinking warm milk and inquiring about mysteries, while The Sentient Helm requested whiskey and insulted Sir. Tensions rose as Lee defended his milk and Sir ordered him to leave, leading to a chaotic exchange where Lee poured milk into Sir's mouth, impressing him and resulting in a handshake.

As the situation escalated, Nick fetched the bouncer, The Bouncer, who was magically compelled by Lee to drink milk, resulting in his hasty exit to the bathroom. Little Nick was called for backup, and after a brief confrontation, he joined Lee and Sir on an adventure. Benji, a local merchant, entered seeking help regarding his missing ship, The Jade Lion, rumored to have been lost to a sea monster. The group agreed to investigate in exchange for gold and travel money.

After securing a better deal, Benji revealed that his son, Raph, was also missing. The group set out toward the harbor, where they encountered Captain Sheila, who was already aware of the ship's disappearance and was planning a rescue. A confrontation with dockside toughs led to a fight, where Little Nick beheaded Nino, and the group escaped on Sheila's Transport. They faced an attack from The Elemental, which they defeated, but not before sustaining damage to the ship.

Upon reaching the island, Sheila informed the group that she would remain to repair the ship while they continued to the lighthouse. They climbed the path to find the entrance shut and learned of a man barricaded inside. As they prepared to confront him, they discovered eel-like humanoids waiting within, setting the stage for another potential conflict at the lighthouse.

MOMENT

THE ELEMENTAL EMERGES WITH A CRASH

As Little Nick warned of an unnatural wave, the water elemental surged, colliding with the ship's hull. The impact sent Sheila and the Crew sprawling, while Lee jolted awake. Undeterred, the Crew regrouped and unleashed crossbow bolts, damaging the elemental as they prepared for battle.

MOMENT

NINO'S HAIR GOES DOWN WITH THE SHIP

In a dramatic turn, Lee Hardley unleashed a radiant blast that not only scorched the prideful Nino but also sent him sinking into the harbor. As the party prepared to escape, Nino's defeat transformed the chaotic pier confrontation into a swift victory, allowing them to set sail without further delay.

MOMENT

ELEMENTAL'S END AND THE BEADS OF POWER

After a fierce battle, the water elemental was finally torn apart by relentless strikes from Little Nick and Sir Mumbles. As the mist settled, a pouch containing six Beads of Force appeared on the deck, marking a tangible reward for their struggle. With the ship safely moored, the party prepared for their next adventure.
